

The Role of NQFs and QA in Recognition
(Peer-Learning Seminar organised by the Croatian Ministry of Science, Education and Sports and the European Quality Assurance Register, EQAR)
Wednesday, 11 December 2013
Venue: Trakošćan, Croatia

Draft Programme

9:30 Welcome and general introduction to the topic

- Ana Tecilizić Goršić, Head of Sector for development of HE, Ministry of Science, Education and Sports
- Colin Tück, director, EQAR
- Claudia Gelleni, vice-president, ENIC network

9:50 Using NQFs and External QA as Reference Point for Recognition - Case-study presentations:

- The new framework for academic recognition in Flanders
Erwin Malfroy, ENIC-NARIC of the Flemish Community of Belgium
- Systems for recognition of foreign qualifications in Croatia
Emita Blagdan, Agency for Science and Higher Education, Croatia

Questions and answers

10:20 Coffee break

10:50 In-depth discussions and work in small groups

Guiding questions:

- How could the examples be transferred to participants' own countries?
- How would participants implement the approaches presented in their context?
- Would participants expect that they make recognition more smooth and systematic?
- Which specific challenges or obstacles would participants expect in their countries, and how could they be addressed?

12:30 Lunch

(coffee served during the afternoon session)

13:30 Wrap-up and reports from the small groups (5 minutes each)

14:00 Recognition of Cross-border Quality Assurance Reviews - Case-study presentations:

- Legislative framework for the work of foreign QAAs
Almantas Šerpatauskas, Centre for Quality Assessment in Higher Education (SKVC), Lithuania
- Opportunities and challenges for institutions
Andreas Raggautz, University of Graz, Austria

Questions, answers and discussion

Guiding questions:

- How could participants use the examples/experiences in establishing a framework in their own country?
- Would participants expect similar opportunities and challenges?
- How can the challenges be addressed and cross-border QA activity facilitated?
- What do participants consider as good practice on the side of legislators, HEI's and QAA's involved in cross-border QA?

16:00 End of the seminar